

HISTORIC WINDOW WORKSHOP

Friday, November 13, 2009
9:00 am—4:00 pm

ARTchitectural Interiors
1350 East Southcross

Register today! Space is limited! Windows are a character defining feature of historic homes that can last hundreds of years if properly maintained. This workshop is designed to teach the everyday homeowner the basics of wood window care and repair. Expert craftsman and HDRC Commissioner, Victor Salas, will teach participants how to evaluate a window's condition and identify areas that need repair. He will go over common problems and solutions. The workshop is a hands-on opportunity for homeowners to learn how to save thousands of dollars through simple do-it-yourself techniques and proper window maintenance.
