The Historic Preservation Office designates landmarks on the basis of historical, architectural, and cultural significance. In 2001, the City of San Antonio revised the Unified Development Code and published it at the Development Services web-site: www.sanantonio.gov/dsd/udc. Section 35-607: Designation Criteria for Historic Districts and Landmarks, in Article VI: Historic Design, details some of the criteria that make a building eligible for designation as a landmark.

Please explain briefly how you feel the criteria that the Unified Development Code has outlined is met by the property: _____

Required Items: Photographs of all four sides of the building, relevant historic items, legal description, architectural description, history of the property, and people associated with the property.

PLEASE SUBMIT THIS FORM ALONG WITH OTHER REQUESTED ITEMS TO:
