

San Antonio International Airport Celebrates 24 Years of Holiday Music

San Antonio, December 3, 2014 –The San Antonio International Airport kicks off the 24th Annual Holiday Music Festival with groups from more than 50 different organizations performing throughout the month of December. Performances are provided by local school bands, choirs, orchestras, churches and college groups. Music styles will range from traditional and jazz to contemporary. Times and locations will vary each day. The festival runs from December 4th through December 14th, 2014. The Holiday Music Festival gives local schools and organizations the opportunity to perform for large crowds of the traveling public and has now become a holiday tradition at the airport.
