

San Antonio International Airport Sets Record for Total Passengers and Enplanements for 2014

February 13, 2014 (San Antonio, Texas)- The 2014 numbers are in, and San Antonio International has set a new record for total passengers and enplanements with 1.4% compared to 2013 and surpassed the record count set in 2008. The total enplaned and deplaned passenger numbers for 2014 increased to 8,369,628.

“No doubt, these numbers reflect the city’s strong economy,” said Mayor Ivy Taylor “The airport is an important part of San Antonio’s economic health and this is a positive sign that we are moving in the right direction.”

“Overall, 2014 was a great year for the San Antonio Airport System, said Aviation Director Frank R. Miller. “In addition to setting a new passenger record, we implemented several new customer service initiatives that enhance our passenger’s experience.”

The San Antonio International Airport contributes more than $5 billion to the region’s economy annually. In 2014, SAT completed a $35-million project to improve the airport’s Terminal A, along with launching a new concessions program. Additionally, several new initiatives were introduced aimed at enhancing the airport experience for passengers to include the introduction of avatars to streamline the security checkpoint process, a partnership with the San Antonio Public Library that provides digital library kiosks to travelers and the ever popular “Pups + Planes” program that pairs two-legged volunteers with stress-reducing, therapy-trained four-legged volunteers. SAT also took the first place ranking in the “Best Improvement By Region: North America” category of the 2013 Airport Service Quality (ASQ) Awards and received its highest rating in an airport survey that measured customer satisfaction during the period of April through September 2014.
