City seeks applicants to the Joint City/County Citizens Bond Oversight Commission

SAN ANTONIO (April 29, 2014) – The Joint City/County Citizens Bond Oversight Commission is seeking applicants to ensure representation from all sectors of the City of San Antonio. The deadline to submit applications is Friday, May 16, 2014. Those interested in applying for one of the available positions may do so online using the City’s web-based application for boards and commission at https://webapps2.sanantonio.gov/BoardComm/Vacancies.aspx.

The Commission is comprised of 20 members, with 10 members appointed by the San Antonio City Council and 10 by the Bexar County Commissioners Court. The Commission advises City and County Elected Officials as to the recommended process for delivery of capital improvements projects, including review of scope, cost estimate, budget, schedule, public input, alternative delivery systems, program management and other capital improvement processes.

The 2012-2017 Bond Program Information Guide states that a Citizens Bond Oversight Commission, which was established in 2003, will continue to monitor the progress of the bond programs.

For additional information regarding the Joint City/County Citizens Bond Oversight Commission, visit http://www.sanantonio.gov/CIMS/About/CitizensBondOversightCommission.aspx.
A Model City for all America: San Antonio

San Antonio is a model city for the new face of America—a diverse, progressive and globally competitive city with a solid vision for national and international economic development. The City of San Antonio maintains a strong financial position with a “AAA” general obligation bond rating from all three major rating agencies. The Milken Institute has ranked San Antonio No. 1 on its Best-Performing Cities list. As the seventh-largest city in the United States, San Antonio is experiencing solid economic growth in 21st century industries such as bioscience and healthcare. Biotech companies and healthcare systems in San Antonio contribute billions to the local economy. The Aerospace industry remains a dominant economic strength in San Antonio with the presence of several aviation and aerospace corporations, including the military. The military has had a significant relationship with San Antonio for more than 200 years and is home to several military commands. The city is also a cybersecurity hub; nationally recognized as a leader in the field of information security. San Antonio is positioning itself to be at the forefront of the New Energy Economy in the United States, committed to investing and creating employment opportunities in green industries. The travel industry also remains a consistent growing economy for the city, as millions of people visit San Antonio on a yearly basis. For more information, visit www.sanantonio.gov.