

AN ORDINANCE 2012-09-20-0739

REGULATING CREDIT ACCESS BUSINESSES;
ESTABLISHING CERTAIN FEES AND FINES; AND AMENDING THE CITY CODE OF SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS TO REFLECT SUCH CHANGES.

* * * * *

WHEREAS, certain credit access businesses engage in abusive and predatory lending practices, offering easy money to those members of our community who are in a tight spot with onerous terms and fees; and

WHEREAS, the practices of certain credit access businesses cause members of our community to become trapped in a cycle of short term, high interest loans resulting in large debt and huge payments; and

WHEREAS, the PEW Charitable Trusts, in their publication entitled Payday Lending in America: Who Borrows, Where they Borrow, and Why, (July, 2012), wrote that "payday loans are sold as two-week credit products that provide fast cash, but borrowers are actually indebted for an average of five months per year." It was further noted that "on average, a borrower takes out eight loans of $375 each per year and spends $520 on interest."; and

WHEREAS, the PEW Charitable Trusts, in their publication entitled Payday Lending in America: Who Borrows, Where they Borrow, and Why, (July, 2012), also noted: "How much borrowers spend on loans depends heavily on the fees permitted by their state. The same $500 storefront loan would generally cost about $55 in Florida, $75 in Nebraska, $87.50 in Alabama and $100 in Texas, even if it were provided by the same national company in all those states. Previous research has found that lenders tend to charge the maximum permitted in a state."; and

WHEREAS, the PEW Charitable Trusts, in their publication entitled Payday Lending in America: Who Borrows, Where they Borrow, and Why, (July, 2012), also stated that "the vast majority of borrowers use the loans on a long-term basis, not a temporary one. Thus it seems that the payday loan industry is selling a product that few people use as designed and that imposes debt that is consistently more costly and longer lasting than advertised."; and

WHEREAS, the Community Financial Services Association of America (CFSA), the national trade association for companies that offer small dollar, short-term loans or payday advances includes the following in the "Member Best Practices" as listed on its internet site (<http://cfsaa.com/cfsa-member-best-practices.aspx>): "Members shall not allow customers to rollover a payday advance (the extension of an outstanding advance by payment of only a fee) unless expressly authorized by state law, but in such cases where authorized will limit rollovers to four or the state limit, whichever is less." The need for consumer understanding was also outlined on this website: "A contract between a member and the customer must fully outline the terms of the payday advance transaction. Members agree to disclose the cost of the service fee both as a dollar amount and as an annual percentage rate ("APR")."; and

WHEREAS, the Center for Responsible Lending, a non-profit, non-partisan organization, stated on its internet site (<http://www.responsiblelending.org/other-consumer-loans/car-title-loans/tools-resources/fast-facts.html>) that: "car title loans are based on the value of a borrower's car - the ability to repay the loan is not a factor in the lending decision ..."; "loan rates for car title are typically 20-30 times that of rates charged by credit card issuers ..."; "the average car title customer renews their loan 8 times ..."; and, "on a $500 title loan, this average customer will pay back $650 in interest over eight months; the principal borrowed will be in addition."; and

WHEREAS, lenders hold onto the motor vehicle title and when borrowers cannot continue to pay the fees, they can lose their vehicles, which can drastically affect the borrower's means of transportation for work and other essential household functions; and

WHEREAS, this ordinance was initiated by a Council Consideration Request (CCR) by Councilman Diego Bernal, and this issue was twice presented to the Governance Committee for consideration and review, which recommended consideration by the full City Council; NOW THEREFORE:
