

Patrick B. Howard, AICP, is the Assistant Director for the Comprehensive Planning Division, providing leadership and administrative oversight in the areas of Community Development, Neighborhood Planning and Urban Design and the City's Unified Development Code. Mr. Howard has a Bachelor of Science degree in Architecture from Clemson University and a Masters degree in Public Administration from Old Dominion University, with additional graduate coursework in Urban Planning from the George Washington University and the University of Virginia.

Mr. Howard's experience in planning, affordable housing and community development spans more 14 years and over four states, and includes positions of significant management responsibility, as Manager of Neighborhoods, City of Norfolk, VA; Director of Planning, Zoning and Code Enforcement, Westtown Township, PA; and Director of Development and Deputy Executive Director of Planning and Development, Youngstown Metropolitan Housing Authority.

Patrick is a member of the American Institute of Certified Planners www.planning.org/aicp

Additionally, Mr. Howard has been a member of the US Army Reserve for more than 18 years, serving recently in Iraq from October 2005 - September 2006 in support of Operation Iraqi Freedom, and was awarded a Bronze Star Medal for his efforts.