In San Antonio, Metro Health identified ten zip codes as high-risk areas for ongoing public health problems. (78201, 78207, 78210, 78211, 78221, 78223, 78227, 78228, 78237, and 78242) due to high numbers of births to single mothers or births to school-age mothers. Researchers have identified the "concentration effect of poverty" connected with crime, alcohol, drug addiction and school failure.

Single mothers and their children are among the poorest and most severely distressed in our nation.

Many of these families are in their second or third generation of poverty.
