In the heart of it all

Embracing our community; celebrating our culture; shaping our future... this is San Antonio and we are in the heart of it all!

Deep in the heart of Texas is a city of 1.3 million people. San Antonio is the seventh largest city in the country known for its deeply-rooted cultural traditions, festive spirit, and warm hospitality. Whether it's savoring the flavors of downtown, happening upon that unique find at a local shop or enjoying the great outdoors at a neighborhood park, there are an abundance of opportunities for residents and visitors to sample the charm of San Antonio...a city with heart.

The City of San Antonio has remained focused on making continuous improvements to the services and programs that our residents and visitors receive. In 2008, there's a telling statement that you will see echoed throughout that says...San Antonio...is in the heart of it all!
