

LUMINARIA

Arts Night in

An Extraordinary Art Scene Showcasing San Antonio's Creative Spirit!

A passion for the arts combined with San Antonio's creative energy sparked a new city-wide event that drew more than 100,000 art lovers. Luminaria: Arts Night in San Antonio proved to be a first class celebration of the local arts. Initiated by Mayor Phil Hardberger as an event to "bring together the best and brightest of San Antonio's creative minds," Luminaria served as a testament to the cultural synergy fostered by the City's Office of Cultural Affairs. Spanning across a city-wide stage, Luminaria electrified the air with an ambience of artistic flair as the city's art community opened its doors to offer a rich sampling of San Antonio art, culture and music.

VARIA

San Antonio

