DEPARTMENT OF THE ARMY
WASHINGTON, DC, 22 August 2002

GENERAL ORDER }
No. 6

ESTABLISHMENT OF THE UNITED STATES
ARMY CONTRACTING AGENCY (ACA)

- Effective 1 October 2002, the Director for the Army Contracting Agency (ACA) will perform the following core activities:
 - a. Consolidate similar and common use contracts to reduce duplication and leverage resources of wide.
 - b. Complete the implementation of contract and contract management consolidation.
 - c. Reduce management overhead and redesign processes to maximize efficient and effective operations, and
 - d. Exercise contract small business options.
- Effective 1 October 2002, ACA, using identification code (SIC) W935AA, is established as a FGA reporting to the ASA(ALT), responsible for ITECA and two continental United States (CONUS) regional contracting centers. The ITECA will be established for Army mission-wide buying capability for common use information technology and commercial items. The CONUS regional contracting centers will divide the CONUS contracting structure along geographical lines and will align with and complement the Installation Management Agency (IMA) realignment plan. The ACA, in coordination with affected organizations, will determine organization, support, equipment, associated resources, and functional responsibilities to be transferred or provided in support of the consolidation of U.S. Army contracting.
- The ACA will coordinate with Headquarters, Department of the Army (HQDA) officials for all Planning, Programming, Budgeting Execution Systems and operational matters.
- The ACA will identify subordinate divisions with full responsibility for all fiscal, financial accounting, fund distribution, and operational matters.
- The Agency will consist of two subordinate CONUS regions (North and South), a Center (ITECA), and five outside continental United States (OCONUS) contracting commands or elements, with each of the eight directors or commanders reporting to and rated by the Director, ACA. The CONUS and OCONUS USAs and locations are established as follows:

SECRETARY OF THE ARMY
WASHINGTON

30 JAN 2008

MEMORANDUM FOR
ACTING ASSISTANT SECRETARY OF THE ARMY (ACQUISITION, LOGISTICS AND TECHNOLOGY)
COMMANDING GENERAL, U.S. ARMY MATERIEL COMMAND
DIRECTOR, U.S. ARMY CONTRACTING AGENCY

SUBJECT: Realignment of the U.S. Army Contracting Agency and Establishment of the U. S. Army Contracting Command

- To improve mission support to our deployed forces and implement the Gansler Commission recommendations on Army Acquisition and Program Management, I direct the realignment of the U.S. Army Contracting Agency (ACA) under the U.S. Army Materiel Command (AMC). I further direct the establishment of the U.S. Army Contracting Command (ACC). The realignment of ACA is effective the date of this memorandum. This realignment will provide a more effective structure through which to execute expeditionary and installation contracting efforts. Within the next 30 days AMC will develop and present for my approval, a concept plan to facilitate the expeditious and orderly transition of ACA and establishment of the ACC.
- Establishment of the ACC will occur as soon as practicable. Immediately upon realignment, AMC will assume responsibility for the ACA and its missions and functions as described in Headquarters, Department of the Army General Order No. 6, Establishment of the United States Army Contracting Agency (ACA), dated 26 September 2002, paragraphs 1-9. In conjunction with this transfer of responsibility, the Commanding General, AMC shall establish the ACC to assume these missions and functions. The Army-wide contracting policy and oversight functions described in General Order No. 6 (2002), paragraph 10, and associated personnel and support resources, shall be realigned under the Office of the Assistant Secretary of the Army (Acquisition, Logistics and Technology) (ASA(ALT)).
- This realignment will be permanently documented in a formal revision of General Order No. 6. The Office of the ASA(ALT) will prepare an Army-wide staff action that will address the transfer of the ACA to AMC. Because of the importance of this action, such formal staffing will be completed expeditiously.
