

PTAC'S VETERAN'S CORNER

SEPTEMBER 2010

Veteran Business of the Month —
Entigic Consulting & SA Marketwise

Entigic Consulting, LLC, is a service-disabled, minority, woman owned small business led by US Air Force veteran, Cathy Briggs-Mamele. Cathy “Cat” Briggs-Mamele brings a wealth of practical, hands-on experience to her clients. Her experience spans 20 years active military service providing life-cycle management expertise, acquisition, training and logistics, quality assurance compliance, and documentation support services. Cat has provided sustainment support at each organizational level within the Air Force Medical Services (AFMS) to the Joint Services arena working synergistically with senior leaders and planners within the Army, Navy, and Reserve/Guard components. Cat has also supported senior leaders, managers, directors, and teams at The University of Pittsburgh Medical Center (UPMC) supporting congressionally funded diabetes research, Northrop Grumman Information Technology (Fort Sam Houston), and Evolvent Technologies, Inc.—recently named one of the fastest-growing companies in the San Antonio area.

Mrs. Briggs-Mamele is also the Chief Executive Officer (CEO) of SA Marketwise Technology Solutions, LLC. Our team provides quality performance and agile information management and information technology solutions environments (including health-care systems), to both government and non-government agencies and academia.

In honor of our veterans, we dedicate this portion of our website to our veteran-owned businesses.

The City of San Antonio’s PTAC is proud to assist our local veteran owned businesses and has received the Center for Veteran Enterprise National Award Recipient for support of veteran-owned small business for 2008.
