

SAT Welcomes Alamo Alehouse & Gourmet Burger Bar to Terminal B.

August 10, 2011—San Antonio, TX—The Alamo Alehouse & Gourmet Burger Bar, the newest addition to the Award Winning Concessions Program at San Antonio International Airport (SAT), is now open for business. The food focus of the Alamo Alehouse & Gourmet Burger is the premium “Gourmet Burger” and is complemented by a drinking-friendly, unpretentious atmosphere with the “Alehouse” sentiment.

The main feature is the completely customizable gourmet burger in addition to an extensive beer and wine selection. A variety of other menu items and a unique gourmet breakfast burger menu ensures something for everyone. The balance of this first-rate food experience, combined with the inviting appeal of the environment, differentiates the Alehouse & Gourmet Burger Bar from other burger restaurant choices.

The Alehouse & Gourmet Burger Bar is truly more than an airport restaurant. It’s a promise of a place where one can unwind and breathe easy with exceptional food, drink and warm surroundings. There’s something instantly familiar and comfortable about the Alehouse & Gourmet Burger Bar. It’s upscale and trendy, but not in a “designer” way. The atmosphere is relaxed and inclusive, not at all exclusive.
