2001-28      PRESENTATION ON THE COMPREHENSIVE HEALTH PROFILE 2000 REPORT.

Dr. Fernando Guerra, Director of Health presented the comprehensive Health Profile 2000 report, a copy of which presentation is on file with the papers of this meeting.

In response to Mr. Schubert, Dr. Guerra stated the City of San Antonio continues to be a target of bioterrorism, and noted that because of the military presence, City size, tourism and medical center complex, San Antonio needs to maintain a constant state of preparedness to avoid the threat of massive destruction that could overcome a large population.

Mr. Barrera commended Dr. Guerra for the excellent report, however expressed concern on the recent health problem related to molds affecting buildings, and multi-family structures.

Dr. Guerra noted this area warrants more investigation and that community and staff resources should continue with the environmental health assessments.
