I thought it would be more about demo approved process, but that may have been my own fault for not reading event description carefully enough. I don't ever trust that I truly understand the purpose of anything the city does, I'm also worried about altering nothing.

Two quick things. Airborn lead paint dust contaminated yards. Children play in yards & we grow gardens in yards. Austin has a Brownfields Program (in Resource Recovery) to address this because of its impact.

② Did you know?? St. John's Cathedral in Harlem (NY) next to Columbia was never finished, so 30+ years ago the cathedral started a program to train kids in Spanish Harlem as stone...

masons, etc. (Heritage Trades). Its worth it!
