B-Cycle has had so much success with its bike-sharing program in San Antonio that it is expanding service.

The nonprofit organization plans to add five new B-Cycle stations in the following locations:

- San Antonio Zoo (3903 N. St. Mary's St.);
- Witte Museum (3801 Broadway St.);
- TriPoint (3233 N. St. Mary's St.);
- Amtrak Station (350 Hoefgen Ave.);
- Ace Mart (1220 S. St. Mary's St.).

B-Cycle sells annual and 24-hour memberships to customers looking to take a recreational ride or who are interested in an alternate mode of transportation.

Riders can check out and check in bicycles at any of the organization's 30 stations in San Antonio. A number of those stations are located in popular areas such as Pearl Brewery, Alamo Plaza, the Henry B. Gonzalez Convention Center and South Town.

B-Cycle expanded to San Antonio in 2011. The nonprofit currently has some 250 bicycles in service in the Alamo City.
