(M) 7 YRS, BLACK / WHITE, LABRADOR RETR / BLEND DOG

Heartworm Test Heartworm Smear

Staff Notes: Gordo is a refined gentleman who doesn't listen to the other dogs' nonsense. He politely turns his head away and walks by barking dogs, is excellent on leash, and appears potty trained! Gordo enjoyed sniffing his way around campus but equally enjoyed sitting next to me on a bench and getting lots of love and pets!

Staff Notes: Blue is a handsome little guy who might weigh in at 55lbs but only reaches your knees! He is a well behaved gentleman who does well on leash, sits when asked, and loves to cuddle up with you! Blue does enjoy a good walk as well so could be a very versatile boy who would love some weekend hikes and weekday snuggles! Hi previous owner stated he was an indoor dog and loves kids!

Trainer Evaluation Notes: PLAY GROUP: Happy and friendly in the kennel. Easy to leash up and was not reactive towards other dogs when walking by in kennel. Decent on leash. Meets well at fence and on/off leash with both m&f. Enjoyed spending time with other dogs and was part of welcoming committee. Very interested in sniffing other dogs and could be a bit much for a dog that is very timid but he means well. Enjoys being around people and will seek and accept affection. Good boy

Trainer Evaluation Notes: PLAY GROUP: Happy and friendly in the kennel. Easy to leash up and eager to go outside. Was not reactive towards other dogs when walking past in kennels. Walks nicely on leash and seems to have had some sort of training as she is easily redirected. Meets well at fence and on/off leash with both m&f. Enjoys greeting other dogs and is respectful and tolerant. Enjoys spending time with people and will seek and accept affection. goofy girl.

Staff Notes: Baby girl Blair is still very much a goofy puppy at heart. Don't let that fool you though, she is a well behaved lady but she enjoys a silly play session from time to time. Blair came in with what appeared to be her pup and that pup was quickly adopted. Now that her silly little baby has found a home, it's time to focus on finding Blair's home. She walks well on leash, sits for treats, and is up for cuddles whenever you are!
